Brief History

The Antique Study Groups were sponsored by the McLean County Cooperative Extension Service. The groups met regularly to learn about and discuss various topics of interest relating to antiques, including hearing invited speakers. The groups frequently traveled to locations related to history and antiques.

Scope

The collection includes the annual meeting programs for Groups I, II, & IV plus programs from the group The Questers.

And, the collection contains the meeting minutes of the Study Group II from 1989 through 2015. These meeting minutes often include membership and meeting attendance information and Treasurers' reports.
