Brief History

Edgar E. Lundeen Sr. was born on March 22, 1898 in Bloomington, Illinois. He was the son of Alfred Lundeen and Mathilda Johanson Lundeen. He had one sister, Mildred Lundeen Hunt, and one brother, Milton Lundeen. He graduated from the University of Illinois in 1924 with a masters in architecture and married Rachael Givens on June 16, 1926. They had two sons, Edgar E. Lundeen Jr. and Randolph Lundeen. He was very active in the community, including being a member of St. John's Lutheran Church, the Arts and Crafts Masonic Lodge, the Peoria Shrine, and the Bloomington Country Club. He was an architect for 50 years, retiring in 1974. He died at age 88.

Rachael Lundeen was born on February 23, 1900 in Bloomington. She was the daughter of William McCurdy Givens and Jeanette Mitchell Givens. She had three sisters: Charlotte Givens, Edna Givens, and Julia Givens Snavely. She graduated from Illinois Wesleyan University in 1922 and taught high school and junior high. She was very active in her church, St. John's Lutheran, and with the Bloomington Country Club. Rachael extensively researched the genealogy of her own family, as well as doing research for other people. She died at age 98 in 1999.

Edgar Lundeen Jr., son of Edgar Sr. and Rachael donated the collection. He and his wife Virginia still live in Bloomington. They had three children: Robert, William, and James Lundeen.

The Snavely family is a large part of this collection. The family lived in the Bloomington area for many years. Julia, wife of Lyle Snavely, was the sister of Rachael Givens Lundeen. Lyle was the son of Dora Kepner and Samuel Snavely. Lyle fought in World War I and was a military medic. He was very involved with the Red Cross.

Scope

This collection includes:
